GO GET 'EM GANG

THE VICTORY SIGN IS UP.

Little Leaguers need ONE more before world series

Campbell wins division title; starts regional play Thursday

It's another one of those do or die deals for the Campbell Little League all-stars in the long, long trail to Williamsport, Pa. this Thursday (Aug. 20) in El Cajon in the western regional tournament.

And, if successful on Thursday against Coronado, the southern California champs, it will be a repeat on Saturday night.

BUT, if the Campbell team makes it this weekend, it will be on to Williamsport, Pa. and the Little League world series.

The Campbell team has advanced farther in tournament play this year than any previous local team, although the Moreland Little League won the world series in 1962.

Four teams, Campbell, Coronado, Mesa, Arizona, and Kenoag, Hawaii, will be battling it out in El Cajon for the regional bunting.

The winner of the Mesa-Kenoag game will meet the victor of the Campbell-Coronado tiff for the regional championship.

DIVISION WINNER

To gain the coveted Division II championship last weekend in Concord, Campbell defeated Salinas on Friday by a 4-0 score and then turned back Concord by the identical 4-0 score on Saturday.

One loss eliminates the teams in Little League tournament play and Campbell youngsters thus far, in winning the district, sectional and division titles have only had five runs scored against them in eight tournament games.

The local aggregation won the district title by defeating Sunnyvale American 4-0; Santa Clara Westside 6-0; Sunnyvale Serra 4-0 and Sunnyvale Metro 4-1.

In the sectional play, the next step, Campbell turned back San Jose National 8-1 and whipped Milpitas 4-3 in extra innings.

ONE HITTER

In winning the division title on Saturday, Mike Alvarez hurled a one-hitter with Ron Colburn, his catcher, providing the power at the plate. Colburn smashed two homers and barely missed on another which bounced over the fence for a double.

Rick Roth was on base each time Ron hit his homeruns to account for the scoring in the game.

Concord had made it to the finals on Saturday by defeating Fortuna 1-0 on Thursday when Campbell was taking care of Salinas 4-0.

Tom Davis was on the mound for Campbell in the Salinas game and he pitched a three-hitter as well as singling in a two-run sixth inning to wrap up the battle.

LEFT MONDAY

Campbell Little Leaguers left on Monday by plane for the southland. They went by car to the San Francisco airport from their home field at Rosemary School in Campbell with the cheers of their supporters ringing in their ears.

The players were accompanied by their manager, Gene Colburn and Ken Aubineau, coach.

Joe McGrody, league president, and many of the parents and fans who were on hand for the send-off Monday were planning to go south for the battle.

The players will be put up in the homes of residents of El Cajon, which is about 12 miles from San Diego.

The winning team in the regional tournament will leave directly from El Cajon for Williamsport, Pa. where the Little League world series will start on Aug. 24. The final game, which will be televised nationally will be on Aug. 29.

City Council may set tax rate Monday

Because the assessed valuation for the city shows an increase of 10.6% over last year, the City Council next Monday (Aug. 24) will be able to adopt the final budget and adopt the tax rate which will enable the city to maintain the $50,000 reserve without doing any more drastic slashing.

Maintaining a $50,000 reserve is a long-established Council policy.

Jeff Whitaker, finance director, reported this week that the assessed valuation of the city is now $56,134,000 compared to $50,727,510, an increase of more than $5 million over last year.

The City Council is also scheduled to set the tax rate for the year at next Monday's meeting but may defer action to a special meeting before the end of the month (the deadline), in order to study the alternatives that are available.

When the preliminary budget was adopted in June, it was contemplated that the tax rate might be set at $1.26 for operational, 63-cents for bond redemption and 15-cents for lighting or a total of $2.04, a raise of 22-cents over last year.

It was anticipated that a 19-cent hike was necessary in the operational budget to allow for city hall construction

Three more vacancies exist on the Commission and Rusty Hammer, chairman, urges interested high school students within the city to apply. Hammer and Ron Brooks are the only "holdover" commissioners.

In objection to ruling on motion

Two Planning Commissioners stage unprecedented walk-out at meeting

In an unprecedented public display of temperament and personal feelings, and animosity, two planning commissioners "took-a-walk" from the Planning Commission Monday night because they objected to a ruling by Vice-Chairman Dale Scott, who was presiding, that a motion was out of order.

The "walk-out" forced proceedings of the Commission to be halted because of a lack of quorum, as only three commissioners remained.

Ironically, when Jack Healey and Frank Klein returned to their seats after their hike, coinciding with the "timely" arrival of the regular chairman, Merrill Grim, Healey's motion that had caused the exodus failed to pass because the now six-member body deadlocked 3-3 on the vote.

So the hearing was held following the half-hour recess caused by Healey and Klein's unscheduled walk.

FUSS STARTS

All the fuss started over the public hearing that had been officially scheduled and advertised on the proposed amendment to a city ordinance which prohibits drive-in theaters within 1000-feet of a residential area.

The Winchester Drive-In theater, as the only such operation in town, is directly affected by the ordinance.

After almost a two-year hassle, the City Council last month adopted an ordinance changing the zoning on the virtually land-locked six-acre parcel owned by and adjoining the Winchester Drive-In. The zone change will allow the theater to install a third screen after a use permit is issued.

However, the 1000-foot limitation to residences affects the situation because of the proximity of the Paseo De Palomas mobile home park.

Following the legal procedure, the City Council had referred the matter of 1000-feet to the Planning Commission for that body's recommendation.

And that was what the hearing was about on Monday.

SCOTT PRESIDES

In the absence of Grim, Vice-Chairman Scott was presiding when the hearing came up to bat.

But before the hearing could be declared open by Scott, Healey moved that it be continued until the first meeting in September. Klein seconded the motion.

In making his motion, Healey observed that a petition was being circulated in town opposing the zone change for the theater parcel and asking that it revert to its former R-3-S (apartments) status.

Healey said that the deadline for obtaining the necessary signatures (more than 800) was next week when the ordinance becomes effective.

If the necessary signatures are obtained, he noted, the Council either must reverse its stand on the zoning or call a special election thus any action on modifying the 1000-ft. limitation would be moot.

OUT-OF-ORDER

Vice-Chairman Scott ruled that the motion was out of order because the hearing had been scheduled and should be conducted as advertised and it was unfair to continue it before it was even opened.

City Attorney Joe Bonacina, in answer to Scott's question, suggested that it would be advisable to open the hearing and then continue. He added also that it could be conceived as abuse of the due process, if the hearing was not held.

Scott then reiterated that the motion was out-of-order and gaveled the hearing open.

Healey interrupted him and said he would not participate in the hearing and staged his unprecedented walk-out followed dutifully by Klein.

Michael Di Leonardo, attorney for Syufy Enterprises, owners of the theater, then went to the mike to speak on the issue but was cut off by Scott when it was pointed out

ALWAYS INTERESTED in our contemporaries in the journalistic field, we shelled out two bits recently to purchase a copy of "Muhammad Speaks" which was being peddled throughout town by a colored gentleman. The vendor was wearing a conventional hat, by the way.

We don't know exactly what we were expecting but the contents of the tabloid newspaper were not as inflammatory as we had thought would be the case.

The banner headline on the front page proclaimed: "THE SERIOUSNESS and DANGER OF THE NEAR EAST! See Page - 9" . . .

In smaller type: "What is Islam? See page 16-17."

And, "SPECIAL: MUHAMMAD'S Plans For Islamic University pages S-1-S-16".

There were eight stories listed in the index on the front page, including one labeled, "K-K-K-Kalifornia", one called "The Ireland Conflict" and one: "Los Angeles Family Demands Justice."

Although it was the first copy we had ever seen, we noted that it is published every week out of Chicago and that the copy we read was Vol. 9-No. 45.

A PRICE INCREASE PER copy had just gone into effect. The paper now costs 20-cents in Chicago and 25-cents outside Illinois.

All the stories were biased, as was expected, and, although they were not badly written for the most part, most were verbose and rambling.

One of the announcements in the paper informed all advertisers that no personal checks would be accepted, only money orders or certified checks.

We suppose many of the stories that appeared were slanderous and libelous.

But then again, we imagine no attempt was made to be factual in their reporting.

That is not the name of the game.

SPEAKING OF FACTUAL reporting or lack of same, we note that in the recent weekly news letter called "Legislative Hot Line" put out by the Builders Association of Santa Clara-Santa Cruz Counties, an item appeared concerning Campbell in which the writer apparently had tried so hard to be clever or funny that he didn't bother with the facts of the case.

We thought the item was lacking in cleverness and humor as well as the facts.

But really we weren't surprised.

Our office receives the so-called news letter every week and the style of the "stories" has at least been consistent.

Sarcasm and/or ridicule, generally against some city or county governmental bodies has generally been the rule and not the exception.

But we suppose the builders enjoy these barbs, for most of the time, in our opinion, builders have some sort of a gripe against city council, planning commissioners or county supervisors.

Still we wonder, if it is necessary, in trying to get a chuckle, to act so smart-alecky and to show such a complete lack of good taste and poor reporting.

But then again humor is a sort of nebulous factor.

Some people even get a bang out of obscenities.

THE ITEM WE REFER to concerned the relationship between Campbell's City Council and the Planning Commission:

Let's quote some excerpts:

"Once upon a time there was a planning commission which got its seven noses out of joint for alleged (Mr. Presi-

Record breaker

The Campbell Little League all-stars this week play for the regional championship in El Cajon, Calif., the last hurdle before the world series in Williamsport, Pa.

The Campbell Little League all-stars this year have advanced farther in the long tournament route leading to the world series in Williamsport, Pa. than any other local Little League team in this city's history.

All of us in this community should take justifiable pride in the record of the Little Leaguers, for their exploits on the ball diamond have focused attention on our city.

We know it sounds corny but the hustling young ballplayers have done almost as much in placing "Campbell on the map" as some of the most ambitious projects of the Chamber of Commerce.

Obviously, as the all-stars advanced in tournament play there was always the question of "Just where is Campbell?" to be answered. So the Little Leaguers have provided a built-in community promotion that is hard to beat.

Most of us fail to recognize that operating a Little League takes up hours and hours of time of a group of dedicated adults who work with the youngsters daily. before and during the regular season and then work even harder as the little guys move along the arduous road to Williamsport.

What we are saying, of course, is that when an all-star team advances toward the ultimate goal the community suddenly becomes aware of the existence of Little League.

But before an all-star aggregation receives this notoriety, hundreds of man (and woman) hours have been expended by many people. Without their unselfish efforts there would not be tournament play.

Therefore, in commending the Little League all-stars for their outstanding record of achievement, let's also pay our respects to the dedicated group of adults who operate behind the scenes or on the scene.

In commending the adults for their efforts, we in no way want to detract from the stellar play of Campbell Little Leaguers who this year have been pacesetters in the grueling grind of tournament competition.

Unlike some of the other youth baseball tournaments, one loss eliminates a team, so, as the kids advance up the ladder, the pressure becomes more and more severe.

There are those, of course, who will argue that this built-up pressure is harmful to the youngsters.

In fact there are some who maintain that the entire Little League program is detrimental because too much emphasis is put on winning and the kids conceivably could develop complexes that would disturb them later on in life.

We fail to see any merit in those arguments, for, it is our opinion, that winning IS important.

We recognize, of course, that there are going to be losers as well as winners, so youngsters must be taught to be good losers as well as good winners.

But we maintain that it is important in this life to win no matter what the contest and that no one should play to lose.

We think the Little League program and all the other youth baseball groups, Pony, Colt, Babe Ruth, etc., provide an invaluable service to every community in which they operate.

Unfortunately, all youths can't take part.

But we have long been convinced that those kids who do take part in these programs will be better citizens for it.

We are proud of the record made by the Campbell Little League all-stars.

We are pleased with the publicity that it has provided our community.

We commend the all-stars, their managers and coaches and all the others who have worked so hard to steer the little guys properly.

We are convinced that the experience that the youngsters have gained in the pressure-packed tournament action will prove of extreme value to them in later life.

We proudly salute the Campbell Little League all-stars for their record-breaking achievement this year.

dent please note) dirty tricks played on it by the city council. Tricks like overturning their decisions and trying to impose a two-term limit on commissioners.

"The last time the varsity tried the latter trick was nine years ago and all Campbell broke loose."

Thus spake a veteran commissioner: "A person can qualify as a city councilman in three months, but it takes several years to make an effective planning commissioner".

" The howl you heard came from the cat on the council who resurrected the two-term idea-he's been councilman for three months".....

FOR THE RECORD, THE builder-editor forgot to mention that the main issue involved the residential requirement for planning commissioners.

As of now, a planning commissioner, who deals strictly with matters pertaining to the city, need not be a resident of the city.

The two-term idea was barely mentioned and no councilman appeared to favor it.

But they thought it could be discussed at the same time as the residential requirement was again up to bat.

The Press, as some of you may recall, has advocated for more than 10 years that planning commissioners should reside within the city limits.

And there is absolutely no personalities involved in this attitude of ours.

There has been a complete turnover of planning commissioners since The Press first submitted that the residential requirement should be invoked.

But then again, maybe we have been too careful of our facts in our reporting.

Apparently there is another way to do present matters.

Still we like our way better.

DURING THE YEARS WE have been newspapering, we have made no attempt to win popularity contests with our column or editorials.

Obviously there have been many who have taken exception to what we have written or how we have said it.

Of course, it depends on the degree of the disagreement, as to how bitter people can get over a newspaper's policy.

Naturally when sides are taken on any issue, the opposition faction will claim that The Press has not the interest of the community at heart and is detrimental to it.

One sort of expects that after a while. You can't win 'em all.

But no one can claim with any sound basis of fact that your editor has had anything but the interest of Campbell at heart, whether or not one agrees with his approach.

We recognize that, if we didn't take a stand now and then, we wouldn't be subjected to criticism from those on the opposite side of the fence.

But then who would they have to shoot at?

-0-

OPPOSITION TO OUR thinking is not just confined to the Campbell area or readers of this sheet.

Fellow publishers have shot us down at times.

Some time ago the tourist bureau of British Columbia distributed a cleverly written blurb on the wonders of the province and enclosed one cuff link with the news release.

The other cuff link would be sent, if a postage-paid enclosed card was returned to the tourist bureau, it was noted.

Nothing was mentioned about using the blurb.

We thought it was a clever gimmick and returned the card and got our cuff link.

We also used a couple of paragraphs about British Columbia.

Many of our publisher friends became indignant over this cuff link offer and wrote letters to the publishers trade making a hill out of a link and we wrote a letter saying so.

One of our fellow publishers apparently thought we were so much out of line that he sent us the cuff link he had received with the note: "George—Just in case you lose one of these free cuff links, here is another to replace it. Regards, Opie Tucker".

We will keep you informed, if we get more.

After all we only own one shirt that uses cuff links.

And we don't wear it very often.

factor.

Whitaker reported this week that the City Council has a number of choices to make with respect to the tax rate, ranging from a raise of 12-cents from last year ($1.82 to $1.94) to a maximum of 22-cents ($1.82 ot $2.04).

The Council also may want to take another look at some of the items that were removed from the budget in June.

City Manager Bob Stephens this week was attempting to draft a priority list for such items.

Council action on Monday is also scheduled for another big local improvement district (LID No. 16) which will cut Salmar Ave. through to Hamilton. It is estimated that this project will cost approximately $267,189.

Bids for the custom-builtins for the new city hall are also scheduled to be discussed at Monday's meeting. Low bid for the job is $10,730.

The Council is also scheduled to hear two appeals from Planning Commission rulings. One involves the proposal of Guild West to improve a city-owned lot next to 80 Gilman Ave. for parking to be used jointly by the city and the occupants of the office building.

The other appeal is for a zone change that was denied by the Commission on Sunnyoaks near Virginia. The Commission recommended that the R-1 zoning remain on the parcels instead of being changed to P-D (planned development) as requested.

Stage walk-out that the three members who remained, Ed Pack, Don Hebard and Scott, did not constitute a quorum.

Bonacina stipulated that the meeting could not proceed.

Chairman Grim showed up shortly thereafter and was handed the gavel by Scott. Healey and Klein then returned to their seats at almost the same time.

RECONVENES

The Commission reconvened and a roll call was taken with six present. (Norman Paul is on vacation)

Healey then made his motion again which ended with the deadlock, so the hearing was held.

During the hearing Di Leonardo again took the floor. He suggested that the hearing should proceed in an orderly manner and pointed out that an ordinance change was a legislative act reserved for the City Council and that the Planning Commission was only an advisory or recommending body.

After the discussion, motion to close the hearing was passed by a 4-2 vote with Healey and Klein the only dissenters.

Scott then moved that the Commission recommend that the ordinance remain unchanged, leaving the 1000-foot limitation intact, allowing the Council to act on the matter as it saw fit.

That motion was passed by a 5-1 vote with Hebard casting the lone negative vote.

And that will be the recommendation that will be sent to the Council.

CONCERNED

Concerned city officials, however, were doing some wondering this week about the Healey-Klein walk-out.

Commissioner Scott publicly labeled their action as a "childish" by-play and that choosing that process of absenting themselves to thwart official business was an "irresponsible act."

Because the walk-out was unprecedented in Campbell, some city officials questioned other ramifications of the action. For example, they wondered just how long does such a walk-out last?

Can it be for just one issue or for the entire meeting?

And, if they participate in commission matters after they have returned from their hike, are such actions by the Commission valid?

Zone change on Hacienda gets Planning Commission approval

A Planning Commission on Monday night, involved in a time-consuming walk-out (see story on page one), and with a lot of other goings and comings, managed to approve a long-pending zone-change application on Hacienda Ave., as well as a number of other items on the agenda.

However, the question was raised in some quarters this week as to whether any of the commission's actions after the impromptu and unprecedented walk-out by Commissioners Jack Healey and Frank Klein would be valid.

By a 4-1 vote, the Commission approved a zone change from R-1 to R-M for two parcels located at 1785 and 1801 Hacienda, owned by Marshall S. Davis and Vernon Renner.

Don Hebard, who was sitting as a planning commissioner for the first time, cast the lone negative vote.

The issue had been continued from a previous meeting when the Commission had deadlocked 3-3 on the application.

The Commission also recommended that the C-H (highway commercial) zoning ordinance be modified to allow office buildings and approved for R-1 zoning (to allow a parking lot) property at 1058 El Solyo, adjacent to the Yardstick that is being annexed to the city.

Approval was also granted for the 44-foot high sign for the PruneYard at Bascom and Campbell and for a wood yard at 1249 Dell Ave., owned by Lee Clark and for a 36-unit apartment complex of the Philip Sondono Investment Co. at 100 and 130 Union Ave.

The Commission also granted four time extensions, three for apartment complexes and the other for the Tantau Athletic Center at 475 W. Rincon Ave.

Barclays hit by hold-up for third time

Barclay's Bank, Latimer and Winchester, was robbed for the third time last Friday by a dark, mustached man, about 35 years of age, according to witnesses.

The robber simulated a weapon and shoved a white paper bag at a teller who gave him approximately $2,437 in currency. The robbery occurred in the early afternoon and the suspect fled.

In other events, there may be some "tummy aches" caused by other than eating green apples, if the person or persons who burglarized the Baskin-Robbins ice cream store attempts to "hide" all their loot. The store was entered last Saturday night and 30 gals. of ice cream were taken.

And the thieves weren't dumb, either–they took scoops too!

Two German Shorthair Pointers were reported stolen from a yard at 921 Camden Ave., a stereo from 195 Rincon and a number of bicycle thefts were also reported.

George Millers feted at surprise party

Mr. and Mrs. George Miller, 206 N. Milton Ave., were surprised recently when they returned from an early dinner at a local restaurant to find their home "taken over" by friends and relatives who had joined together to help commemorate the Miller's silver wedding anniversary.

Celebrants included the Miller's children, Mike, Barbara, and Margaret. Assisting were Mr. and Mrs. Omer Thompson of Stockton, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Straw of Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baldra of Burlingame.

The surprise was engineered by Mr. and Mrs. David Thompson, daughter and son-in-law of the Miller's who invited the Millers to a farewell dinner (the Thompsons are moving to Illinois). When the foursome returned home, they were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Drew, Mrs. Hector Daves, Mr. and Mrs. George Kemp, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Lewis, all of Campbell.

Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Grant Thompson of Stockton, Mr. and Mrs. William Vorkoeper of Saratoga, Sterling Redman, Jr., and son Jimmy of Redwood City. (Mrs. Baldra, Mrs. Vorkoeper and Mr. Redman are Mrs. Miller's sisters and brother)

A silver and white money tree was presented to the honorees and many who could not attend sent "fruit" to hang on the tree. During the evening, Miller's mother and brother, living in Texas, called to offer their congratulations.

4-H CLUB MEMBERS

The July-August meeting featured a barbeque for all members. Site of the all day outing was Cowell Park near Felton.

Major topic of discussion was the up-coming Santa Clara County Fair. All members plan to enter exhibits or animals for judging. The club will also compete with other 4-H clubs in a booth reflecting 4-H activities available held during the last week of June.

A check for $37 was received from Campbell Kiwanis. Each year Kiwanis sponsors a 4-H delegate who attends a one week conference held at the University of California at Davis.

Project reports and songs concluded the meeting.

The Trick or Treat program will in this way be made available to even more youngsters than last year.

The money collected will be used by UNICEF to assist programs for the world's needy children in 120 countries. By participating in Trick or Treat for UNICEF, American children help their contemporaries in developing countries.

The program includes 3.5 million boys and girls and involves religious, educational, and civic groups in community-wide activity. Tots, teenagers, college students, and adults play vital roles in participation, sponsorship, and supervision.

Church Notes

Society honors church women

The Afternoon Guild of the Congregational Church, a service group, were honored recently by the American Cancer Society for outstanding work.

During the past year the ladies made 120 special cancer pads, converted 15 men's shirts to hospital gowns and transported patients to hospitals for treatment. Co-chairmen are Mrs. George Jeffers and Mrs. Wilbur Mitchell.

The Guild will continue to serve the community, making baby blankets for needy children and working for the Cancer society.

LUCETTES

The Lucettes Senior Group of St. Lucy's Church will meet on Monday, August 24, from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. in Kennelly Annex at the church, 2350 Winchester Blvd. Participants should bring a lunch and dessert and beverage will be furnished.

Program for the day is an exhibition of Early American decorations by Mrs. Antonio Cacioppo, local artist.

PARTY GIRL—Mrs. Jonnie McFall, 40 Railway Ave., celebrated her birthday with a gathering last week. Mrs. McFall, who was Senior Princess at last year's county fair, cooked dinner for daughter Minalee Slinker, Bloomington; Harold McFall, Campbell, Rolan McFall, San Diego, and J. A. McFall of San Jose, as well as several grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Surprising? Not when you're 80 years young!

Church hosts football team

The football squad of San Jose State College will be guests of the First United Methodist Church, 1675 Winchester Blvd., at their 10:30 a.m. service on Sunday, August 23.

Accompanying the team will be Joe McMullen, head coach, Dewey King, assistant coach and George Darlington, line coach.

Dr. Herman Hyatt, pastor of the Antioch Baptist Church of San Jose, will speak on "Surmounting the Unsurmountables," with special music by Robert Campbell.

The entire community is welcome to participate in the service, which precedes the team's intensive training program before the opening of the academic year.

PAPER BIN

Persons wishing to contribute their old newspapers may deposit them in the paper bin at the Congregational Church, 400 Campbell Ave., on August 28, 29, & 30. Youth of the church will also make pick-ups. Call 378-4418 for information.

Chorale group seeks basses and tenors

A co-operative non-profit group called the Aversante Chorale is now seeking members for the fall season. Presently there are openings in all sections, with a special need for basses and tenors.

The group performs choral music with regular concerts and benefits for charitable or service organizations, as well as occasional appearances before various church, social and civic groups.

Interested persons should call June Rowe, 356-7762.

AUXILIARY MEET

The Campbell Community Hospital Auxiliary will meet on Thursday, August 20, 1970 in the home of Mrs. James Malone - 1021 Hedegard Ave., Campbell, with Mrs. Carl Mattison president presiding.

Doggone shame.

Doggone shame about that dog lying dead by the side of the road.

Doggone shame his owner didn't care enough about him to keep the gate shut.

Dog gone.

* * * *

The recent hot spell was very hard on all dogs. They drank gallons of water and sat in the shade and panted.

Adult dogs, fortunately, know what to do to keep cool. They stay off the hot pavement and don't move around too much...

Puppies, on the other hand, if they are very tiny, only know that they are uncomfortable and frequently add to their own misery by loudly proclaiming their unhappiness.

This is where you come in. If your puppies are indoors and in an unventilated room or garage, you have to make your own "air-conditioning" for them. Soak a few old towels or a rug in water and put the puppies directly on them. If they are very hot, sponge them off a little.

If you can hang a wet towel or old bedspread in front of a doorway or window, the air circulating in the room will also be cooler. Even though they are not yet eating from a dish, put a little water on your finger or a spoon and place it to their mouths–they'll catch on, fast.

* * * *

To spay or not to spay. Is that the question?

Many people have the mistaken notion that a bitch should "have a litter" before she is spayed. How or why this concept ever came to be is beyond me. I am a strong advocate of spaying BEFORE the female puppy ever has her first season.

Spaying prevents a lot of headaches. It makes your neighbor with the male dog very happy. It keeps the strays from your door. It lessens the chance of an accidental mating of a young female who is not ready for motherhood.

The number of unwanted "mutt" breed dogs in the country, this state, this county, and this city is unbelievable. Sure your sister wants one, your aunt wants one–but what if you have ten–all females–who wants them?

Neutering the male is also a good idea. Some very aggressive dogs calm down considerably after this simple surgery. if a dog has a tendency to be a roamer, he may decide that home is the best place, after all.

If you evaluate the consequences, in terms of tax dollars on stray dog collection, humaneness towards the animals, and the possibility of having to put to sleep a litter of happy playful puppies, it won't be hard to find the right answer.

Golf tourney proceeds to aid youth program

Riverside Golf Course will be the setting for the first annual golf tournament of Junior Achievement of Santa Clara County on Thursday, Aug. 27 when more than $2,500 in prizes will be offered. The tournament is being staged for the benefit of the east San Jose youth program.

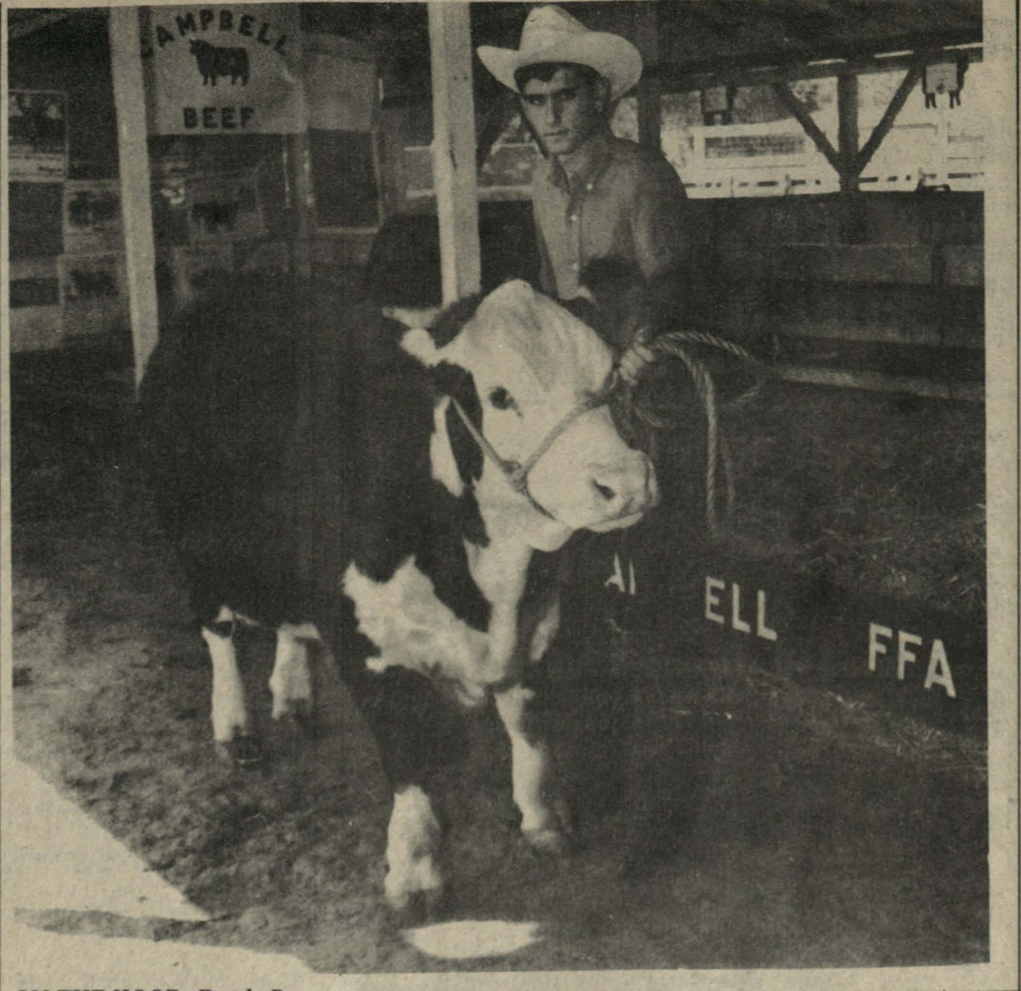
The price of $25 per golfer includes green fees, a steak dinner and prizes. Proceeds from the event will go to raise money for the Junior Achievement program.

Registration cards are available from most pro shops or by writing Junior Achievement, 32 Race St, San Jose or phone 297-1736.

Those in charge of the tournament report that individuals can make up their own foursomes, twosomes or whatever. There will be low net and low net with two runners-up as well as high gross and runner up and a "best dressed golfers" competition.

The tournament is sponsored by a group of businessmen who have a minimum goal of $3,000 to raise for the expansion of the Junior Achievement program in the east San Jose area.

Of the 624 applicants for Junior Achievement projects last year, only 194 students could participate because of a shortage of operating revenue.



ON THE HOOF--Randy Peer, 18, Campbell, is seen here with his FFA (Future Farmers of America) reserve champion steer at the Santa Clara County Fair last year. Entries in the junior livestock division have increased this year. The livestock auction will be held on the last Saturday of the Fair, Aug. 22. The Fair closes Aug. 23.

Adventists meet in Soquel camp

A landmark declaration on human relations traditionally held by Seventh-day Adventists received new acclaim this week at the church's camp meeting for Central California church adherents in Soquel.

Samoan, Spanish Russian, and German language groups have had a part in the programming. More than 800 Spanish-speaking Adventists are holding their own camp meeting within the grounds of the 104-acre church campground.

A special display of the lay activities department of the church is collecting funds and names for Opportunity Camp, planned especially for those unable to attend a summer camp in any other way.

The largest Camp for the under-privileged planned by the church in the past three years, there are already more than 100 boys and girls signed up for the special week of fun August 23-27 at the church's 18 acre Camp Wawona in Yosemite.

Held primarily for under-privileged non-Adventist children, the camp this year has attracted 30 youths from Japan.

Unsecured taxes must be paid by August 31

Edward N. Glaeser, Santa Clara County Director of Finance, wishes to remind all taxpayers who pay unsecured personal property taxes that they will become delinquent at 5:00 p.m., August 31.

Unsecured Personal Property consists of inventory, fixtures and equipment, improvements on leased property, boats, airplanes and all other personal property not included in real estate bill.

Payments may be sent by mail to the Tax Collector, 70 W. Hedding St., San Jose, 95114, but must be postmarked prior to 5:00 p.m., August 31.

If the tax is not paid at that time, State Laws require a 6% Penalty plus Costs be added to all unpaid taxes.

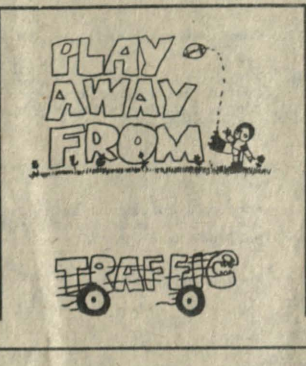
CECIL MORSE and The Stringdusters

TRAVELERS

Grace and Don Hebard of Calado Ave., back from a trip through the Oregon Caves, reported that they see "Campbellites" everywhere — this time in the persons of Hardy Ave. residents Lou and Nancy Miller who were also touring the caves.



THE PHONE BOOTH

It's getting harder all the time to find an isolated hide-away, but now you can still get away from it all, yet keep in touch with the rest of the world. Last year the Bell System added a dozen new places to its overseas communications network including the Admiralty, Gilbert and Chatham Islands in the South Pacific.

In 1927, the year Lindbergh flew solo across the Atlantic, overseas communications consisted of a single radio-telephone circuit between New York City and London. Today you can reach 97% of the world's telephones in more than 200 countries and territories.

ARE YOU REGISTERED TO VOTE?

Registration for the November 3 general election closes September 10. If you'll be 21 years old by election day or are new in the community, you must register to be eligible to vote.

A new law makes it unnecessary for voters who've moved within a county to re-register. Such voters can now notify the County Clerk or Registrar of Voters by mail of their change of address and he will provide the necessary forms to be filled out. (Notices must be postmarked no later than Sept. 10.) You'll also be able to get these forms at 1550 Leigh Avenue, our business office, where Pacific Telephone will again be providing voter registration facilities for your convenience.

United Giving reminds you: Invest in people and we all benefit. Help those who need it most by giving your fair share the United Way.

LEGAL NOTICE

BEING AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF CAMPBELL DELETING SECTIONS 9316 THROUGH SECTION 9316.1 OF CHAPTER 3, ARTICLE IX OF THE CAMPBELL MUNICIPAL CODE AND ADOPTING NEW SECTIONS 9316 THROUGH SECTION 9316.1 OF CHAPTER 3, ARTICLE IX OF THE CAMPBELL MUNICIPAL CODE, ENTITLED PLANNING AND ZONING PROVIDING FOR ARCHITECTURAL CONTROL STANDARDS. CONTROL STANDARDS.

The City Council of the City of Campbell does ordain as follows:

SECTION ONE: That the following sections of Chapter 3, Article IX of the Campbell Municipal Code, entitled Planning and Zoning, be and the same are hereby repealed: Section 9316 through 9316.1.

SECTION TWO: That the following sections be and the same are hereby enacted as a part of Chapter 3, Article IX of the Campbell Municipal Code providing for architectural control standards: Section 9316 through 9316.1.

Section 9316. ESTABLISHMENT OF "S" SPECIAL ZONING AREA.

1. Purpose

The purpose and intent of architectural review is to secure the general purposes of these Code Sections relating to architectural design and the general plan, and to insure that the general appearance of buildings and structures and the development of the land shall in no case be such as would impair the orderly and harmonious development of the neighborhood or impair investment in and occupation of the neighborhood.

2. Architectural Review Committee

The Architectural Review Committee is hereby established. The Committee shall consist of two members - two members of the Planning Commission to be appointed by and to serve at the discretion of the Chairman of the Commission. An architect or licensed building designer may be appointed by the Planning Commission as an advisor to the Architectural Review Committee. The appointee shall serve at the discretion of the Planning Commission for a six (6) month period of time.

It shall be the duty of the Architectural Review Committee to review all applications for architectural and site approval as required by this Ordinance and to make reports and recommendations on each application to the Planning Commission.

3. Application

Applications for architectural and site approval shall be filed with the Planning Commission for any proposed development in any zone which has been combined with an "S" Special Zoning Area designation.

a. All applications for architectural and site approvals shall be accompanied by a filing fee of twenty-five ($25.00) dollars, no part of which is returnable.

b. The Planning Commission shall prescribe the form of application and data to be filed with the application. A site development plan shall be required to accompany the application. If development is to be carried out in stages, each stage shall be shown on a master plan of development. The plan shall indicate the site location and planning of all open spaces and structures to show that the development will be compatible with the General Plan of the City and will aid in the harmonious development of the immediate area. The Plan shall include proposed buildings or structures with elevations which show appearance and materials of exterior walls, landscaping, walls or fences used for screening or separation, design of ingress and egress, off-street parking or loading facilities, location and design of exterior signs. The Planning Commission may also require such other information as is considered necessary.

c. Applications for architectural and site approval may be heard without the notice required by other provisions of this ordinance. The applicant shall have the right to appear and be heard before the Committee and the Commission. The Committee and/or the Commission may also hear other parties who would be affected by the proposed development. The Planning Department shall arrange with the applicant a time and place of meeting between the applicant and the Committee.

d. The Planning Commission shall hear and decide all applications for architectural and site approval, except as provided in paragraph (e) below, within 60 days of the filing of an application. The grant of architectural and site approval by the Commission may include such conditions as the Commission deems reasonable and necessary under the circumstances to carry out the intent of this Ordinance and the General Plan.

e. The Planning Director may review and decide applications for architectural and site approval for single-family, two-family and one-story, three-family dwellings and their accessory buildings. He may also review and decide applications for minor additions or alterations to existing buildings and minor changes in plans which have previously been approved by the Planning Commission. Minor changes are limited to modification in the plot plan and elevations that will not change the overall character of the proposed development and will not exceed a cost of 5,000 dollars. However, if the Planning Director finds that the proposed development will have a substantial effect on the surrounding area or is of sufficient size to warrant the consideration of the Planning Commission, he shall refer the application to the Architectural Review Committee for processing in the same manner as all other applications for architectural and site approval.

4. Consideration in Review of Applications

The Architectural Review Committee and the Planning Commission shall consider the following matters and other when applicable in their review of applications:

   (1) The number, location, color, size, height, lighting and landscaping of outdoor advertising signs and structures in relation to the creation of traffic hazards and the appearance and harmony with adjacent development.

c. Considerations relating to landscaping:
   (1) The location, height and material of walls, fences, hedges and screen plantings to insure harmony with adjacent development or to conceal storage areas, utility installations or other unsightly development.
   (2) The planting of ground cover or other surfacing to prevent dust and erosion.
   (3) The unnecessary destruction of existing healthy trees.

d. Considerations relating to buildings and site layout:
   (1) Consideration of the general silhouette and mass, including location on the site, elevations and relation to natural plant coverage, all in relationship to the neighborhood.
   (2) Consideration of exterior design in relation to adjoining structures in height, bulk and area openings, breaks in the facade facing on the street, line and pitch of roof, and arrangement of structures on the parcel. Buildings of non-masonry construction will be permitted with an architectural exterior on sides facing major streets, highways or parkways.

5. Findings and Decision

Upon a finding by the Planning Commission that the proposed development, subject to the conditions imposed, will be compatible with the General Plan of the City and with aid in the harmonious development of the immediate area, the Commission shall approve the application, otherwise it shall deny the application. In giving its approval, the Planning Commission shall state the conditions imposed and the time limits within which the conditions must be fulfilled and the proposed development started or completed.

6. Notification

The Secretary of the Planning Commission shall give written notification of the decision of the Planning Commission to the applicant. In case of approval, the notification shall include all conditions and time limits imposed by the Commission.

7. Transfer, Time Extensions and Changes

Architectural and site approval shall apply only to the specific use for which approval was granted. The Planning Commission may upon application, permit a change in the use for which the application was granted, permit a change in the imposed conditions, and/or grant extensions of time.

No building permit shall be issued after the expiration date of any approval until a new approval has been obtained in the manner specified for in this Chapter.

Duo plays at Ken's nightly

One of the most popular duos to hit the entertainment trail recently is the Jim de Noon—Jim Ells Combo featured in the Tiddley Lounge at Ken's House of Pancakes on Hamilton Avenue.

According to Bob Holliday, manager, the duo is scheduled for nightly appearances Tuesday through Saturday.

In addition to providing live music for the entertainment of Tiddley Room patrons, they also play for dancing, a new feature added at Ken's. Jim Ells performs on both organ and piano with de Noon featured on the guitar, with both coming in on vocal stints.

Both artists are former stars with big time groups, de Noon having been with the Fifth Dimension and Ells with Mel Torme. Since breaking into the night club circuit on their own the duo has met with outstanding success, packing them in wherever they've appeared.

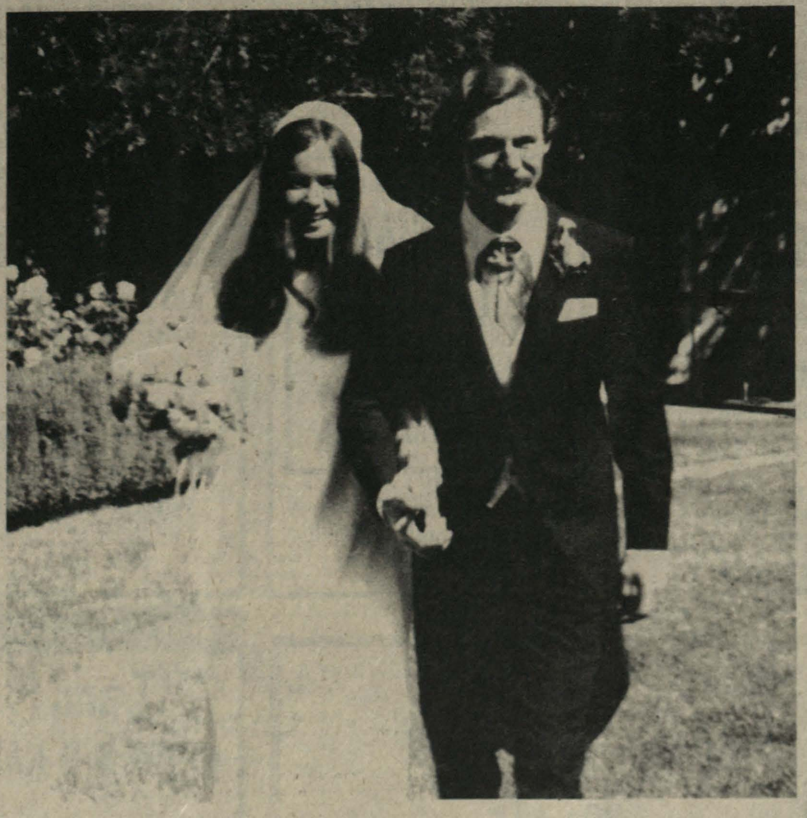
Montalvo wedding unites Campbell High graduates



MR. AND MRS. MICHAEL STEVEN MUSCATO

The beautiful oval garden of Villa Montalvo in Saratoga was the setting for the marriage of Margaret (Peggy) Hebard to Michael Steven Muscato of Campbell. Peggy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Hebard of this city. Her bridegroom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Muscato of 190 Hardy Ave., Campbell.

Father Alvin Peevyhouse, Episcopalian chaplain at San Jose State College, officiated at the double-ring ceremony, witnessed by approximately 100 friends and relatives of the couple.

The brunette bride was attired in a gown of white re-embroidered imported organdy featuring a high neckline and long full organza sleeves. Her finger-tip veil was secured with a Juliet cap and she carried a bouquet of pink and white roses.

Three attendants, gowned in coral and white voile, preceded the bride and her father down the aisle. Patricia Hebard, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, and bridesmaids were two Campbell school friends, Mrs. Ronald Silva (Christine Salyer) and Mrs. Lance Popoff (Vicki Ridgway). Bill Letonen served as best man and the groom's attendants were his brother, Nick Muscato and John Koester. Little Michelle Finley was the flower girl and six year old Neal Ferguson was the ring bearer.

The two young brothers of the bride and groom, Doug Hebard and Mark Muscato, ushered.

A champagne reception in the gardens followed the nuptials. Peggy and Michael cut a beautiful three tiered wedding cake. The newlyweds have returned from a honeymoon to the Hawaiian Islands and are now making their home in Oakland where Michael is completing his studies at the California College of Arts and Crafts.

The couple are graduates of Campbell High School, class of 1967. The bride attended the University of California at Santa Barbara.

Christian Theatre working to revive religious drama

A little different kind of drama is currently in production in Campbell.

In contrast to the unusual morals of some contemporary dramas, a "Christian Theatre Company" is at present working in Kennelly Hall at St. Lucy's Church on a play titled "Like It Is", books and lyrics by Helen Kromer; music by Frederick Silver.

The idea for the theatre group was conceived and directed by George Akina, former Campbell High student, currently studying at San Jose State College.

Akina says he knew there were many religious plays in publication but not in production.

With this in mind, he sent for and read a number of religious works and finally chose "Like It Is."

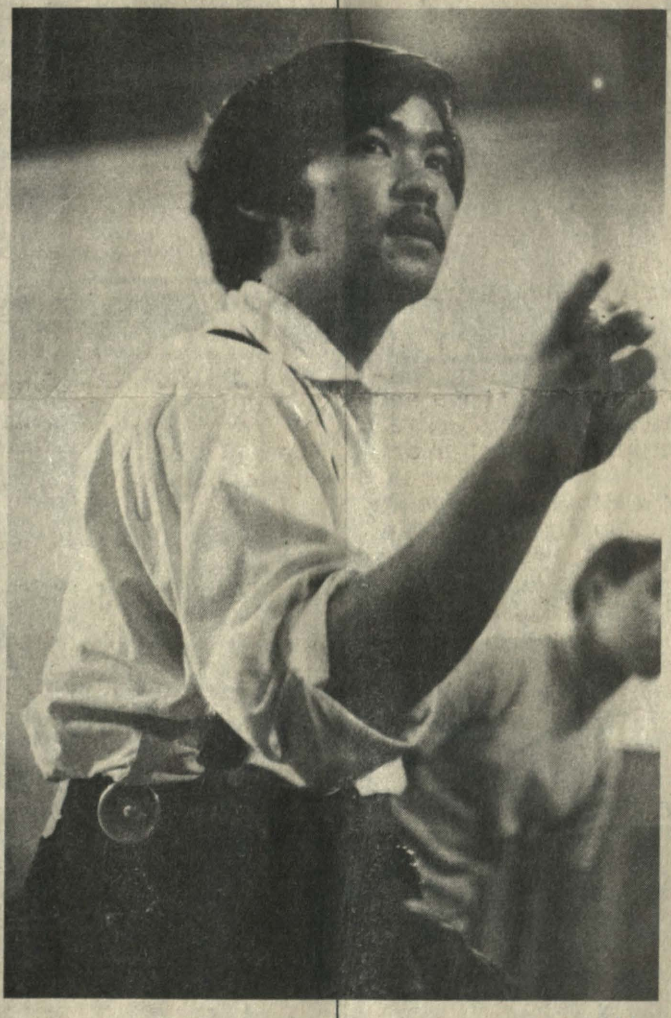
It took some time to purchase copies of the play, find a rehearsal hall and start working on the musical.

However, for the past month, Akina, aided by Sally Poulsen, assistant director; Kristy Nunes, choreographer; Gail McEvoy, music and choral director; Kay Pruvich, technical director; Barbara Braze, costumer; and Mark Harville, public relations, ~~have~~ been following a regular evening rehearsal schedule and has announced performances for Friday and Saturday, Aug. 28 and 29, at 8 p.m.

Akina hopes to make the Christian Theatre a regular performing summer stock group, pointing out that drama originated in churches who used dramatizations to give religious instruction.

Music for this performance is performed by Sherree Young, piano, Cliff Beckham on bass guitar and Richard Mansfield, percussion.

Performers include Rob Anderson, Janie Barnes, Bill Bennett, Annette Bianchi, Candy Bourdet, Doug Campbell, Kathy Caton, Robin Curtis, Ruben De La Pena, Dawna Marshall, Mike McDermott, Gail McEvoy, Sindy McKay, Sally Poulsen, Mike Powers, Kay Pruvich, Sandy Spier, John Webster and Eugene Wong. House manager is Paul Tokunaga.



TRY IT AGAIN --- George Akina, director, founder and financier of the newly formed Christian Theatre Company spends his evenings working with fellow dramatists in Kennelly Hall at St. Lucy's Church.

OKTOBERFEST

A fund-raising "oktoberfest" is currently planned for Oct. 3 and 4 by San Jose Music Theater Auxiliary, formerly San Jose Light Opera, to include a parade, queen contest, antique car show, fair booths, food and beverage. Campbell women working on the affair are Mrs. Stephen Chelbay, Mrs. David Jacobsen, Mrs. Tack Reilly and Mrs. Harold Riddle.

CAKE FLOUR

Specially milled fine cake flour was first marketed about 1890.

HAWAIIAN TRIP

Mrs. Joseph Souto of Central Ave. just returned from a two week trip to Hawaii, accompanied by her niece, Mrs. Zelda Dolen of San Rafael.

The airplane trip was a "first" for Mrs. Souto who reported that the giant jet in which she traveled seated nearly 400 persons. Her trip included a tour of the island and hours of entertainment.

"The weather was beautiful" and she spent as much time as possible enjoying the beach.

Jaycees slate kids zoo trip

Fifty deserving youngsters are going to have a very special day at the San Francisco Zoo on Saturday, Aug. 29, thanks to the Campbell Jaycees.

A 9 a.m. "take-off" is planned by chairman Tom Preble, who has announced a full day of food and fun for the small fry.

Transportation chairman is Roger Hughes who has arranged embarkation from Campbell High School parking area. Food will be supplied through the efforts of Ben Woo, assisted by publicity chairman Ralph Voit.

Although this is the first such special event, the Jaycees hope to make it an annual one and already have made plans for a Christmas party to accommodate 100.

Food baskets will be filled at Thanksgiving and distributed by the active "under 36ers." Al Blaine is president of the local group.

BICYCLE TRIP

by

Jeff Barranti, 2nd Class Scout and
Ray Barrett, Life Scout

The Eagle Patrol of Troup 317 took a 27 mile bicycle trip Wednesday, August 12, 1970 to Guadaloupe Reservoir. We all met at our Patrol Dad's house on Victor Ave. at 1:00 a.m.

We discussed the requirements for the cycling merit badge with Phil Woods of the San Jose Cycling Club.

We soon started off and had some minor troubles with some bikes so we headed for Mr. Woods' house for repairs. We soon found ourselves at Guadaloupe Reservoir. There we met Ed Steffani, also a member of the San Jose Cycle Club.

During the first half it was very hilly. Mr. Steffani left us at Campbell and Winchester. After that we went to have lunch, and then we went home. We had a short patrol meeting. Before that Mr. Woods answered all the questions we had.

In all we completed 27 miles. I'd say, it was a successful trip. The boys who went were:

Jeff Barranti, Ray Barrett, Steve Onishi, Victor Barrett, Richard Negron, Peter Barrett, Mark Lawson, and Doug Haggey.

This trip was the first of a series of six.

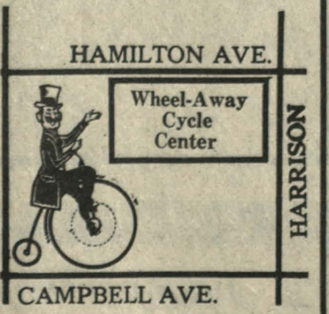
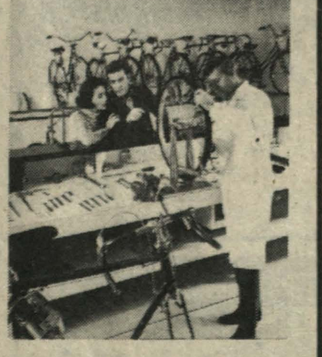
COME IN AND SEE OUR GREAT NEW, COMPLETE CYCLE CENTER





When you buy a new bike at an "ordinary," non-bicycle store you often have to take the carton home and assemble the bike yourself. Frequently, an additional charge is made for the assembly service. When you buy a bike from us there is nothing ordinary about it. First, it is a Schwinn — one of the world's finest bicycles. Second, we are a factory franchised Schwinn dealer — so you can rely on our service and quality. Third — every bike we sell is assembled, adjusted, and ready-to-ride.

SERVICE? WE'LL TAKE CARE OF IT! From time to time even the finest equipment requires the steady hand of a factory trained serviceman. If you need help, isn't it a comfort to know we're right around the corner. Whether it's a tire change, or a complete bike rebuilding job, we are ready . . . cheerful, fast, and efficient

with "Charlie" Gubser

Last week when President Nixon signed the postal reform bill, it brought back memories of my own effort to take postmaster appointments out of politics.

In November 1952 when Dwight D. Eisenhower was elected to be the first Republican President in 20 years, I was chosen for my first term in Congress. I was prepared to meet major domestic and international problems but totally unprepared for the deluge of would-be postmasters who started knocking on my door almost as soon as the ballots were counted.

As I wrote in an article entitled "Should Congress Be Playing Post Office?", which was accepted by THIS WEEK magazine,"...No sooner had the election results indicated that I would be going to Washington, than a phantom army of current, acting, former and aspiring postmasters came out of the woods and encircled me by telephone, letters, telegrams and in person."

Appointing my first postmaster was a nightmare I'll never forget. Religious issues were introduced, subversion was insinuated, and whispering campaigns started which hinted at draft dodging and leftist sympathies.

On January 18, 1954, I introduced H. R. 7302 to change the centuries' old custom of selecting postmasters on the recommendation of Congressmen. Ironically my approach was actually the resurrection and strengthening of an unenforced 1883 law which made it illegal for a postmaster applicant to solicit the support of a Congressman.

My bill passed the House of Representatives and was killed by a powerful southern Senator in the Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee. Later I was successful again in having my bill considered by the House, but forces led by Congressman James Roosevelt which looked forward to a change of Administration were able to defeat it on a strict party-line vote.

Thus, the drive to take postmasterships out of politics languished until Postmaster General Winton M. Blount took office. His success in this regard is now history.

Some say that Benjamin Franklin, the father of the postal system, started the patronage system by appointing his wife's relatives as postmasters.

When Andrew Jackson became President in 1829, he tried to remove 8,000 postmasters and replace them with his own men. His Postmaster General demurred so Jackson kicked him upstairs to a seat on the Supreme Court. He then appointed another Postmaster General to do his bidding. Ever since, with the exception of the meaningless and unenforced law of 1883 and my own abortive effort, the political system of appointing postmasters has gone unchallenged.

Selfishly, I am glad to see the system go. Usually the political consequences of an appointment were a dozen angry and unsuccessful applicants and one happy postmaster whose political activity was terminated by the Hatch Act. Furthermore, the system has not been in the national interest.

My hat is off to Postmaster General Blount. From personal experience, I know he'll have headaches, but postal service should improve.

College offers legal secretary course in fall

For the first time in this area, West Valley College will offer a complete two-semester, eight-unit legal secretarial course (Business 74, legal secretarial practice and procedures) beginning this fall.

The course is designed for those without previous law office experience who have some general office experience, a typing speed of 50 words per minute and a shorthand or stenotype speed of 80 words per minute.

Mrs. Carol Wilcox will be instructor with guest lecturers from the Santa Clara County Bar Association and the Legal Secretaries Association.

The first semester will cover court structures, filing procedures, and legal terminology; legal dictation and transcription from shorthand notes and transcription machines; improvement of written and verbal communication skills; and preparation of civil, domestic relations, probate and corporate documents on the IBM executive and selectric typewriters.

The second semester will concentrate on the preparation of criminal, probate, bankruptcy, and real estate documents; court filing procedures, advanced dictation and transcription; and law office management, legal bookkeeping, and the use of the law library.

The course was organized under the guidance of the college's legal advisory committee composed of Edward Panelli, George Martin, John Ball, James Lea, Lois Kittle, Mary Jo Appel, and college staff personnel, including Warren Sorenson, dean of vocational and technical education; John Jorgensen, business division chairman; and secretarial instructors Barbara Lea, Lana Bone and Donette Dake.

Those interested in enrolling for the course should contact the Admissions Office, telephone 379-1733, ext. 63 for admission procedures.
